

RESOURCES FOR VOLUNTEER MANAGERS ON THE WORLD WIDE WEB

INFORMATION AND RESOURCES –Chapter Two

1. www.impactonline.org/
This site contains online “instruction” in volunteer program development, recruitment, screening, training and more.
2. www.volunteertoday.com/recrui.htm
This is the site to view Volunteer Today – an online magazine for enhancing volunteer programs.
3. www.pointsoflight.org
This is the Points of Light Foundation for useful information that targets volunteer managers and is a national directory of volunteer centers.
4. www.ci.sat.tx.us/planning/handbook/vanilla.htm
The City of San Antonio, Texas and the Disability Advisory Committee have prepared this Disability Etiquette Handbook to enhance the opportunities for persons with disabilities. This is a useful site with do’s and don’ts, interviewing etiquette and much more that can aid in the pursuit of volunteers with disabilities.
5. www.casenet.org/nuts/volunteers_management
This site provides a wealth of information from firing a volunteer and living to tell about it to providing an outline for a volunteer handbook.
6. www.cybervpm.com/index.htm
For recruitment ideas that work, the basics of volunteer recruitment and much more, visit this site and its wealth of information.
7. www.energizeinc.com/total.html
This site lists videos and books relevant to volunteer training, management, leadership, Internet activism, and recognition skit kit.